

APS SATELLITE MARCH MEETING 2026

Global Satellite Session Pakistan: Highlight from the 3rd Joint National Centre for Physics 17th March, 2026 (16:30-18:30 PST)

The American Physical Society (APS) Global Physics Summit 2026 will be held in Denver, Colorado, USA, from March 16–20, 2026. In parallel, an APS Satellite Meeting will be jointly organized at the National Centre for Physics (NCP), Islamabad, Pakistan, on March 17, 2026.

As part of its initiative to enhance the diversity of APS annual meetings, APS has launched a pilot program of Satellite Meetings. NCP is hosting this event for the third time, based on its successful experience from APS March Satellite Meetings held in 2024 and 2025.

The sessions on March 17, 2026, will be conducted at NCP from 16:30 to 18:30 (PST), with live online streaming. Detailed session schedules for the APS Global Physics Summit 2026 are available on the official APS website.
